Annual district conventions are a high point in the lives of each of Jehovah's Witnesses. The members of the Torrance congregation are busy making arrangements to be on hand at the opening of the current gathering this Friday at the Orange County Fairgrounds. Convention chairman, Floyd Garrett will deliver the opening address at 2:30 p.m., based on the convention theme, "Courageous Ministers Remain Steadfast."

Leonard Olliff, local presiding minister, discussed the convention program with his group here last night commenting on some of the subjects to be highlighted. Friday's sessions include instruction on the value of right association and the importance of exercising Christian love. MR. OLLIFF also pointed out that a special series of talks will be given Saturday afternoon and evening on "Subjection to the Superior Authorities," which will make clear the application of Romans Chapter 13, dealing with the Christian's attitude toward the laws of God and man. The responsibility of Christian parents and youths will be covered Sunday morning. Then

General Registration at El Camino Begins Aug. 23

General registration for fall semester classes at El Camino College will begin on Aug. 23. Leo M. Christian, assistant director of student personnel, announced yesterday.

Conducted in the Student Activity Building, registration will continue through Aug. 30. Prior to enrollment, students must obtain reservation cards and test reservation in the Registration Office.

Students failing to register on or before Aug. 30 will have one final opportunity to enroll for fall semester classes. On Sept. 11, sign-ups will be taken in the Student Activities Building from 1 to 3 and from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Any necessary placement tests must be completed three days prior to registration. Classes will begin on Sept. 11; college officials recommend the earliest possible enrollment to ensure the best possible selection of classes.
